A PROPHETIC MESSAGE

God is soon going to stun the world and every nation on Earth will be affected by it.

A large percent of the world's population has been turning away from belief in God and disrespecting His moral laws and guidelines, and this does not bode-well for mankind.

Therefore, God is going to give the world a bit of a wake-up call, and give mankind one last chance to adjust their immoral behavior, to make changes in their daily life activities, to become more benevolent in character, compassionate, and respectful to God.

This coming Event will affect every Adult Human Being on Earth, and bring awareness to the totality of mankind that "God Does Exist."

Those that have spiritual wisdom will change their ways, accepting atonement, however, there will be those that hold onto their vanity and live for earthly desires, temporal pleasures, and continue to engage in immoral activities; this will seal their fate, to suffer through turmoil and chaos during horrific tribulation times (Matthew 24:21).

Be on the alert, the Event is coming soon, for those who have an ear, let them here.

May the grace of God be with you always --- Amen
