The Book of Enoch – Chapters 104-105

---

Enoch was the son of Jared, the father of Methuselah, and the great-grandfather of Noah. It is believed that Enoch was born in 3328 BC, 622 years after the birth of Adam. The Bible states that Enoch lived 365 years before he was taken by God.

The Book of Enoch, written during the second century B.C. is one of the most important non-canonical apocryphal works, and had a huge influence on early Christian beliefs, specifically among Gnostic believers, and those that truly believed in divine salvation.

Enoch is believed to have had direct contact with God's most holy of angels, and describes visions of heaven and hell, angelic beings and devils, and introduced concepts such as fallen angels, the Luminaries, the Nephilim, the Watchers, and the appearance of a Messiah, Resurrection, a Final Judgement, and a Heavenly Kingdom on Earth. Interspersed with this material are scientific digressions on calendrical systems, geography, cosmology, astronomy, and meteorology.

Chapter 104

P1. I swear unto you, that in heaven the angels remember you for good before the glory of the Great One: and your names are written before the glory of the Great One.

P2. Be hopeful, for aforetime ye were put to shame through ill and affliction; but now ye shall shine as the lights of heaven, ye shall shine and ye shall be seen, and the portals of heaven shall be opened to you.

P3. And in your cry, cry for judgement, and it shall appear to you; for all your tribulation shall be visited on the rulers, and on all who helped those who plundered you.

P4. Be hopeful, and cast not away your hopes for ye shall have great joy as the angels of heaven.

P5. What shall ye be obliged to do? Ye shall not have to hide on the day of the great judgement and ye shall not be found as sinners, and the eternal judgement shall be far from you for all the generations of the world.

P6. And now fear not, ye righteous, when ye see the sinners growing strong and prospering in their ways: Be not companions with them, but keep afar from their violence; for ye shall become companions of the hosts of heaven.

P7. And, although ye sinners say: All our sins shall not be searched out and be written down," nevertheless they shall write down all your sins every day.

P8. And now I show unto you that light and darkness, day and night, see all your sins.

P9. Be not godless in your hearts, and lie not and alter not the words of uprightness, nor charge with lying the words of The Holy Great One, nor take account of your idols; for all your lying and all your godlessness issue not in righteousness but in great sin.

P10. And now I know this mystery, that sinners will alter and pervert the words of righteousness in many ways, and will speak wicked words, and lie, and practice great deceits, and write books concerning their words.

P11. But when they write down truthfully all my words in their languages, and do not change or monish ought from my words but write them all down truthfully all that I first testified concerning them.

P12. Then, I know another mystery, that books will be given to the righteous and the wise to become a cause of joy and uprightness and much wisdom.

P13. And to them shall the books be given, and they shall believe in them and rejoice over them, and then shall all the righteous that have learnt therefrom all the paths of uprightness be recompensed.

Chapter 105

P1. In those days the Lord bade them to summon and testify to the children of earth concerning their wisdom: Show it unto them, for ye are their guides, and recompense over the whole earth.

P2. For I and My son will be united with them forever in the paths of uprightness in their lives, and ye shall have peace: rejoice, ye children of uprightness. Amen.
