The Book of Enoch – Chapters 94-95

Enoch was the son of Jared, the father of Methuselah, and the great-grandfather of Noah. It is believed that Enoch was born in 3328 BC, 622 years after the birth of Adam. The Bible states that Enoch lived 365 years before he was taken by God.

The Book of Enoch, written during the second century B.C. is one of the most important non-canonical apocryphal works, and had a huge influence on early Christian beliefs, specifically among Gnostic believers, and those that truly believed in divine salvation.

Enoch is believed to have had direct contact with God's most holy of angels, and describes visions of heaven and hell, angelic beings and devils, and introduced concepts such as fallen angels, the Luminaries, the Nephilim, the Watchers, and the appearance of a Messiah, Resurrection, a Final Judgement, and a Heavenly Kingdom on Earth. Interspersed with this material are scientific digressions on calendrical systems, geography, cosmology, astronomy, and meteorology.

P2. And to certain men of a generation shall the paths of violence and of death be revealed, and they shall hold themselves afar from them, and shall not follow them.

P3. And now I say unto you the righteous: Walk not in the paths of wickedness, nor in the paths of death, and draw close to them, lest ye be destroyed.

P4. But seek and choose for yourselves righteousness and an elect life, and walk in the paths of peace, and ye shall live and prosper.

P5. And hold fast my words in the thoughts of your hearts, and suffer them not to be effaced from your hearts, for I know that sinners will tempt men to evilly-entreat wisdom, so that no place may be found for it, and temptation will in no way will disappear.

P6. Woe to those who build unrighteousness and oppression and lay deceit as a foundation, for they shall be suddenly overthrown, and they shall have no peace.

P7. Woe to those who build their houses with sin, for from all their foundations shall they be overthrown, and by the sword shall they fall, and those who acquire gold and silver in judgement suddenly shall perish.

P8. Woe to you, ye rich, for ye have trusted in your riches, and from your riches shall ye depart, because ye have not remembered the most high in the days of your riches.

P9. Ye have committed blasphemy and unrighteousness, and have become ready for the day of slaughter, and the day of darkness and the day of the great judgement.

P10. Thus I speak and declare unto you: He who hath created you will overthrow you, and for your fall there shall be no compassion, and your Creator will rejoice at your destruction.

Chapter 95

P1. Oh that mine eyes were a cloud of waters that I might weep over you, and pour down my tears as a cloud of waters, so that I might rest from my trouble of heart.

P2. Who has permitted you to practice reproaches and wickedness? and so judgement shall overtake you sinners.

P3. Fear not the sinners, ye righteous, for again will the Lord deliver them into your hands, that ye may execute judgement upon them according to your desires.

P4. Woe to you who utter curses and anathemas which cannot be reversed, healing shall therefore be far from you because of your sins.

P5. Woe to you who requite your neighbor with evil, for ye shall be requited according to your works.

P6. Woe to you, lying witnesses, and to those who weigh out injustice, for suddenly shall ye perish.

P7. Woe to you, sinners, for ye persecute the righteous, for ye shall be delivered up and persecuted because of injustice, and heavy shall its yoke be upon you.
