The Prophecy of Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ End Times Prophecy

As interpreted from the Bible

New Testament Book of Matthew Chapter 24:

During or around the year of 30-AD, and as it happened, one day, Jesus and His disciples had journeyed to the City of Jerusalem, and had visited the temple there and toured through all the buildings in and around the temple.

Then after departing the temple, Jesus and His disciples journeyed to the Mount of Olives. Being tired from their journey, they gathered together and sat under a large olive tree and took rest.

Then while resting, Jesus began speaking to His disciples, saying to them, the temple and all these buildings we have seen, there shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down and all will be destroyed.

The Prophecy of Jesus Christ

Then the disciples being alarmed by what Jesus had said to them, later came to Him privately, saying, tell us Lord, when shall these things come to be? And what signs shall there be before the coming of these events, and the end of the world?

And Jesus answered and said to them, take heed and let no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am your Christ, and shall deceive many.

And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: Do not let yourself be troubled: For all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: And there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in diverse places, and many diverse tragedies shall occur throughout the world. All these are the beginning of sorrows.

The Prophecy of Jesus Christ

Then shall they deliver up many Christians to be persecuted, and many shall be killed: And they shall be hated by all nations for my name's sake.

And then many shall be offended, and shall betray one another, and will come to hate one another, and even desire to kill one another.

And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be heard throughout the entire world, for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come.

The Prophecy of Jesus Christ

When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, (whosoever reads or hears these words, let them understand):

Then let those who believeth in Me, that are Christians in those days, flee to the mountains to avoid tyranny, chaos and to seek safety: Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of their house: Neither let him which is in the field or working in their jobs return back to take their clothes.

And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! But pray that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day:

For there shall come a great tribulation, such has not happened since the beginning of the world, nor to this time, nor shall there ever be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: But for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

The Prophecy of Jesus Christ

Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

Behold, I have told you before. Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, He is in the desert; go not forth: behold, He is in the secret chambers, believe it not.

For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be. And for where-so-ever there are carcasses, there will also be scavengers gathered together.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from Heaven, and the powers of the Heavens will be shaken:

And then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in Heaven: And all eyes shall see him, and then shall the population of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of Man descending from the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory.

The Prophecy of Jesus Christ

And He shall send his Angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of Heaven to the other.

Now learn a parable of the fig tree: When its branches are yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, you know that summer is nigh: So likewise also, when you shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

Truly I say unto you, of that generation and time, it shall not pass away until all these things are fulfilled. Heaven and Earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

But of that day and hour no man knoweth, no, not even the Angels of Heaven, but only my Father. But just as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.

The Prophecy of Jesus Christ

For as in the days that were before the great flood, as they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.

Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be working in their jobs; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Watch therefore: For you know not what hour your Lord will come.

But know this, if the good man of the house had known at what time the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken into. Therefore be you also ready: For in such an hour as you think not, the Son of Man Cometh.
